Upon establishing approval criteria, the Authority shall be entitled to choose from the non-mandatory exclusion grounds and the suitability criteria. As regards suitability criteria, the Authority shall specify, pursuant to Article 65 (1) of the PPA, the existence, non-existence and level of insufficiency of circumstances precluding the inclusion of the tenderer in the official list of the Authority. When publishing the approval criteria, the Authority shall also indicate the way of certification pursuant to the provisions set out in this paragraph.⁸²

4. In the course of establishing the approval criteria, there shall be no discrimination whatsoever of tenderers based on their place of establishment, or otherwise. The Authority shall be entitled to break down the approval criteria by activities or sectors and may also set several levels within the categories created as mentioned above.

5. For the purposes of Article 65 (7) of the PPA, a document shall be attached, which contains the commitment undertaken in a contract, preliminary contract or in other format by the entity (person) providing resources, proving that the resources needed for the performance of the contract will be available during the whole period the tenderer is included in the official list of the Authority.⁸³

1. The Authority shall issue a certificate of registration certifying that the tenderer is included in the official list. Such certificate shall state a reference to compliance with the approval criteria and the classification given in the list.

2. In contract award procedures, contracting authorities shall accept the fact that a tenderer is included in the official list of the Authority certifying the non-existence of exclusion grounds - with the exception of the case specified in paragraph 3 - and certifying compliance with the requirement (requirements) of suitability, considering paragraph 4.⁸⁶

3. The approved tenderer shall provide a separate certificate under this Decree stating that it does not fall within the scope of Article 62 (1)(b) of the PPA.

4. The approved tenderer shall also provide a separate certificate concerning its suitability for the performance of the contract in relation to suitability criteria, concerning which the contracting authority - in its contract award procedure or in the pre-qualification system - lays down stricter criteria and way of certification for the tenderers' financial and economic standing, technical capacity and professional qualification than the approval criteria laid down pursuant to Article 28 (3). The contracting authority shall make specific reference to such stricter suitability criteria in the call for competition.

Article 31

1. The availability of resources used shall be certified pursuant to Article 28 (5), with the proviso that, as regards the availability of capacities and the references, the applicant shall also indicate the way of the actual usage of the capacities - pursuant to Article 65 (9) of the PPA, where appropriate - and the use of the professional experience during the period of inclusion in the official list of the Authority, in the contracts to be concluded based on the contract award procedures.

⁸⁷ This amendment entered into force on 3 February 2021.

Article 65 (8) of the PPA shall also apply to the inclusion in the official list, with the proviso that during the period of inclusion of the tenderer in the official list of the Authority, the entity providing resources shall be liable as surety for the performance of the tenderer in each contract award procedure, in which the suitability criterion certified by it is prescribed.

5. The application shall be ruled on by the Authority in a decision within two months upon receipt of the application. Such time limit may be extended once in justified cases with two months.

6. The applicant shall become an approved tenderer as of the date of registration in the official list of the Authority or as of the date of renewal of the term of validity of its inclusion in the official list of the Authority.

2. Upon the modification off the approval criteria, approved tenderers already registered in the official list of the Authority shall also certify, in the manner required, their conformity with the new or modified approval criterion. Approved tenderers shall be called upon to do so during the provision of information specified in paragraph 1. As regards suitability criteria, the chamber shall specify pursuant to Article 65 (1) of the PPA the existence, non-existence and level of insufficiency of circumstances precluding the inclusion of the tenderer in the list of the chamber. Upon publishing the approval criteria, the chamber shall indicate the way of certification pursuant to the provisions set out in this paragraph.

4. In the course of establishing the approval criteria, there shall be no discrimination whatsoever of tenderers based on their place of establishment or otherwise.

5. For the purposes of Article 65 (7) of the PPA, the document containing the commitment undertaken in a contract, preliminary contract or in other format by the entity (person) providing resources shall be attached, proving that the resources needed for the performance of the contract will be available as long as the tenderer is included in the list of the chamber.⁹⁰

⁹⁰ This amendment entered into force on 1 February 2020.

3. Approved tenderers shall provide a separate certificate concerning their suitability to perform the contract in relation to suitability criteria in the case of which the contracting authority – in its contract award procedure or in the pre-qualification system – lays down stricter criteria and way of certification for the tenderers' financial and economic standing, technical capacity and professional qualification than the approval criteria laid down pursuant to Article 37 (3). The contracting authority shall make specific reference to such stricter suitability criteria in the call for competition.

Article 40

1. If the approved tenderer established in Hungary submits the certificate based on the list of the chamber in a contract award procedure launched by a contracting authority of another Member State of the European Union, the certificate shall constitute a presumption of suitability only as regards Article 19 (1)(b) and (c), Article 21 (1)(a)-(f) and (h)-(i), (2) (a)-(e), (g) and (h), (3) (a)-(f), (g) and (h) of this Decree.

RULES ON THE PUBLIC PROCUREMENT TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

9. Definition of the technical specifications

Article 46

1. For the purposes of the provisions pertaining to the public procurement technical specification, the following terms shall mean

(c) 'standard, national standard, European standard, international standard': terms as defined in the Act on National Standardization;

(d) 'European Technical Assessment': the documented assessment of the performance of a construction product, in relation to its essential characteristics, in accordance with the respective European Assessment Document, as defined in point 12 of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No. 305/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 March 2011 laying down harmonised conditions for the marketing of construction products and repealing Council Directive 89/106/EEC.

2. Without prejudice to mandatory technical rules complying with EU law, the technical specifications shall be drawn up, according to the choice of the contracting authority, in one of the following way:

(a) by defining performance or functional requirements, including environmental features ,

(b) with respect to the design, calculation, and execution of public works and the use of the product, by referring to national standards transposing European standards, European technical approvals, common technical specifications, international standards, other technical recommendations developed by European standards organisations or – where these do not exist – by referring to national standards, national technical approvals, or national technical specifications; or

(c) based on the requirements mentioned in point (a), by referring to the specifications mentioned in point (b) as a means of presuming conformity with those requirements; or

(d) by referring to the specifications mentioned in point (b) concerning certain characteristics, by referring to the requirements mentioned in point (a) concerning other characteristics.

3. Except for cases justified by the subject-matter of the contract, the technical specifications shall not refer to a specific make or origin, a particular process featuring the products or services of a given economic operator, or to trade mark, patent, activity, person, type, a particular origin or production process, with the effect of favouring or eliminating certain economic operators or products. Upon referring to the aforementioned point, a tender complying with national standards transposing European standards, European technical approvals, common technical specifications, international standards or a technical reference system established by a European standardisation body shall not be declared invalid, if such specifications refer to the performance or functional requirements laid down by the contracting authority. The tenderer shall certify in its tender properly, by any appropriate means that the work, supply or service in compliance with the standard meets the performance or functional requirements of the contracting authority.

5. In the case of paragraph 2(b), the contracting authority shall, in addition to referring to the name of the standard, technical approval, technical specifications, technical reference system, also mention the term “or equivalent”. Tenders shall not be declared invalid exclusively because the works, products or services incorporated thereto do not comply with the technical specifications, if the tenderer certifies - in an appropriate manner, using any appropriate means - that the solutions recommended comply equivalently with the requirements provided in the public procurement technical specification.

6. For the purposes of paragraphs 4-5, appropriate means may in particular be the means of proof referred to in Article 60 of the PPA. Contracting authorities shall also accept certificates issued by recognized bodies seated in other Member States.

Article 47

1. The public procurement technical specifications shall be drawn up by considering the criterion of equal access to the services by all users, including disabled persons, if applicable considering the subject-matter of the public procurement.

2. For all subject-matters of the public procurement intended for use by natural persons, whether general public or staff of the contracting authority, the technical specifications shall, except in justified cases, be drawn up by considering the accessibility criteria of disabled people and design appropriate for all users, respectively the universal design principles under Article 2 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities proclaimed with Act XCII of 2007.⁹⁴

3. If mandatory accessibility standards are adopted by a legislative act of the Union, the technical specifications shall, as far as the criteria of accessibility for disabled people or design appropriate for all users are concerned, be defined with reference to such act of legislation.
